Crop Reports.

MOBILE, September 10.—The following crop reports have been received from Alabama. Eighty-eight letters from forty-seven counties:

The weather during the month of August has been wet and unfavorable, compared with last year much less favorable. The plant is not fruiting well nor retaining squares and bolls. The average present condition is reported 20 per cent. worse than last year. Picking has commenced and will become general all over the district about the middle of September. Boll worms and caterpillars are reported pretty generally, but no serious damage has resulted therefrom, except in prairie and bottom lands of middle Alabama. Damage from rust and shedding is general and serious, which makes a comparison with last year 20 per cent. worse, as noted above.

Mississippi—thirty-four letters have been received from seventeen counties. The weather during the month of August has been wet and unfavorable, and much less favorable than same period last year. The plant is not fruiting well nor retaining squares and bolls. The present condition is, on an average, 5 per cent. worse than last year. Picking has commenced and will become general about the middle of September. No damage from boll worms or caterpillers is reported. Damage from rust and shedding is general, which makes the condition 5 per cent. worse than last year.

The Russian View.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—The Gazette says the massacre of the members of the English mission to Afghanistan obliterates the scientific frontier between that country and India and necessitates the occupation of the whole of Afghanistan by the British, but this is incompatible with the assurances given by England to Russia, with whom there must be an understanding regarding the measures of satisfaction to be taken by England. The Gazette recommends a solution by a partition of Afghanistan so as to bring English and Russian dominions in contact in central Asia.

Yellow Jack.

NEW ORLEANS, September 10.—Vice-President Fenner and Dr. C. B. White, sanitary director to the auxiliary sanitary association state that no one has been attacked by the yellow fever since September 1st, nor a single case known to exist in this city.

This association protested to the National Board of Health against New Orleans being considered an infected city and ask that the facts be distinctly stated in the next number of the Bulletin and be announced to the country at large by telegraph.

Wisconsin Democratic Nominations.

MADISON, September 10.—The Democratic convention finally nominated Alexander Mitchell, of Milwaukee, for Governor. Mitchell is now in Europe and some doubt is entertained of his acceptance. William F. Vilas, who was put in nomination for Lieutenant-Governor with the understanding that he accept the first place if Mitchell declined to run, positively refused to serve, and George H. King was subsequently selected, with Samuel Ryan as candidate for Secretary of State.

The Maine Election.

PORTLAND, Sept. 10.—Thus far complete returns from only two counties have been received. From the returns made the Senate stands: Republican 106; opposition 73. The Situation in Memphis.

CHICAGO, Ill., Sept. 9—President Langstaff, of the Memphis Howards, addressed the Board of Trade yesterday regarding the needs of his association. A committee was appointed consisting of prominent business men to canvass the board and secure subscriptions. They may receive the same aid as others if they will remove to camp and apply for it.

Looking For Dwellings.

Durham Recorder, 9th.

Several parties were in town last week looking for stores and for dwellings. The first may be more easily found than the last—none vacant now, but some probably soon. But we venture to say that dwellings are not to be had at a moment's notice. That is the want of the place. All the dwellings that can be erected will speedily be occupied. Will nobody take the hint?

AN OUTSIDER'S VIEW.

IMPORTANT SUGGESTIONS RELATIVE TO RALEIGH BUSINESS.

A Retrospective View Supplemented with a Present Glance.—Some Political Ideas from the Capital.

Correspondence of the News.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 8, 1879.—To one not wholly unacquainted with the business capacities and commercial advantages of Raleigh, the serious efforts made, as per NEWS of several late dates, by her merchants to convince the world that they can sell goods at wholesale on as favorable terms to country dealers as can those of Norfolk and Richmond; is somewhat (excuse me for saying it), ludicrous. Of course they can do it. Who doubts it? Why not? Your present correspondent, long ago presented the same views; and as your own columns and those of other Raleigh papers will show, urged upon your business men the importance of extending their trade. It's "late in the day" for them just now, when their more energetic and enterprising neighbors and competitors have secured nearly all the trade of the State, to wake up and say "we can sell as cheaply as they can," or "we will duplicate bills" of this and that place. "Duplicate" the d——! Go to work to secure trade from regions now so accessible to Raleigh? Why not do as Wilmington, Charlotte, Norfolk and Richmond-folk do: advertise, give excursions, send out "drummers," etc., etc. Why prate and eat dirt and chaw crow about doing "as well" as some other market? 'Tis not the way to make Raleigh what Raleigh ought to be—the first and best inland market in the State; and freights and other contingencies being considered, equally advantageous to the buyer and producer, with the seaboard cities. Do the cotton "operators" of Raleigh know that within eight hours' travel they can reach the finest cotton growing section of the State? Did it ever occur to them that, by proper effort, they could control the trade of that section? It seems not, for they have never made an effort for it. I allude to the Pee Dee section; Dargan's "river country": Anson, Union, Stanly, Montgomery and Richmond counties; than which, in his endless and boundless course the "God of day" shines on no nobler or better land! Selah!

Sadly out of place is all this from your "Regular" at Washington, and I must beg pardon for so far "ganging agley."

Things here are becoming somewhat more lively; the merchants are receiving fall stocks; folks are coming home; the theatres are opening; the circus is billed for the 12th and 13th instant; improvements and alterations in the capitol and other public buildings and grounds are progressing rapidly; the goddess of liberty (so called, with her tail turned toward the setting sun, which is not apropos) looks serene and complacent; Mr. Hayes, who lives in the White House, de facto, etc., is going away to attend pumpkin shows and jackass exhibitions in the Northwest. His fraudulent cabinet men are scattered to the four winds.

"Whither they go, or how they fare,
Does anybody know or anybody care?"

A man named Wheeler, a sort of parasitical fungus appendage of the government, was last heard of as presiding over a meeting of stalwarts at Saratoga; whereat when Conkling came to the front and shook his ambrosial locks, he (Wheeler) submissively subsided and "pulled the hole in after him." And then—for poor little old Sprague was far away with his "shot-gun policy"—Lord Roscoe crowed most lustily, as cock o' the walk, and now, doubtless, is basking in the sunshine of his "Katy Darling's" smiles, in some hidden nook or corner away up in Yankeedoodledom, where the Linke, temporarily severed, is safely sawdered. This is a great country.

Senator Ransom dropped quietly in to the city a day or two since, but was gone again before the quidnuncs and interviewers could get a chance at him. From Sergeant-at-Arms Bright of the Senate, and the genial and gentlemanly Colonel Allabaugh, "commander-in chief" of the capitol police, who saw him, I learn that the distinguished gentleman is improved in health, and that his recuperation from the "wear and tear" of the laborious extra session is strikingly apparent. The Senator is most favorably spoken of here, politically, officially and personally. No man has more friends, and a staunch Northern Republicans said to me lately "if you folks should put Ransom as second on the National ticket of next year, I any many others of my faith would vote that ticket on his account."

This slightly illustrates the personal esteem in which he is deservedly held, for politically, no man is sounder or more unswerving in his devotion to Democratic principles than Matt Ransom. Senator Vance will meet other members of the Ingalls' Investigating Committee here on the 12th, when and whence they proceed to Kansas.

I have a heavy one on "our Zeb," and as I "owe him one" for something he said about me once in Wadesboro; I am keeping it till he comes.

His speech of June last made a marked impression here and elsewhere. Folks say he is a wonder; that they didn't know the "tar, persimmon and huckleberry" State could produce such men! And I tell them they "don't know half" yet.

Two once prominent and leading North Carolinians I frequently see, though they don't know me, Kenneth Rayner and John Pool. They both went after the "flesh pots;" one got 'em; the other didn't, Both look careworn and conscious stricken, and I remember the days of 1860 when, etc., etc., and now "none so poor as to do them reverence."

Could the NEWS enlighten me as to the present whereabout of its recent editor, J. B. H.? He is needed here and anxiously looked for.

I hear, rather authoritatively, of a new weekly to be started in Raleigh, by an experienced and well-known journalist. I surely wish him and it well, but I could name to him a town and county where he could embark in the enterprise with better prospects. Will he do me the honor to ask "where?" L.

DISASTER TO THE UNCLE SAM.

Her Crew Rescued from the Perils of the Deep by the Queen of Nations.

LONDON, Sept. 8.—The vessel that on the 21st of August picked up the crew, consisting of Capt. Goldsmith, and his wife, of the Uncle Sam, the miniature vessel that sailed from Boston for Europe some months ago, was the British ship Queen of Nations, Capt. Edwards, which arrived at Liverpool on Wednesday last from Quebec.

Mrs. Goldsmith at the beginning of the voyage, suffered from seasickness. Her illness' after a few days, assumed a serious form, threatening inflammation of the bowels. The constant wakefulness of Capt. Goldsmith was thus necessitated. On the 16th of August, when off New Foundland, a tremendous northeast gale was encountered, necessitating a reduction of sail. It was feared that the boat would be swamped or capsized, and Capt. Goldsmith had to stand, knife in hand, ready to cut away the halliards. In consequence of the boat shipping heavy seas, Captain Goldsmith finally lay to with two drags over the boat's bows, and tried to take some rest. A tremendous sea almost filled the place where he was resting, and his wife was sitting in the water up to her shoulders. After bailing out the water, it was found that the drag and two oars had been carried away, and all the provisions, except canned meats, destroyed. Mrs. Goldsmith growing rapidly worse, her husband at ten o'clock on the night of Aug. 10, began to consider the desirability of returning to Newfoundland. The gale continued on the 17th and 18th, all the fastenings but one of the mainsheets having given way. At three o'clock on the afternoon of the 19th, after seventy-two hours of wakefulness, Capt. Goldsmith lay down to sleep, but was awakened by the shock of a heavy sea. He saw a large bark, and chased it for an hour. Mrs. Goldsmith was hauled aboard the ship Queen of Nations with a rope. Everything in the Uncle Sam was lost, as the boat was afterward scuttled.

THE TRADE OF RALEIGH.

What the Leading Merchants say---First-Class Goods at Low Figures.

W. B. HUTCHINGS, SADDLERY AND HARNESS MANUFACTURER.

Mr. Hutchings thought trade this spring had been as good as previous years; the summer months a trifle duller. The fall trade is about opening and the prospects are good, as crops generally are better than usual in this section. He can do work and furnish goods in his line as cheap as the cheapest. Mr. Hutchins is a capital business man and his house is an old established one. He will treat you right.

STRONACH & ALLCOTT, MANUFACTURER'S AGENTS, DEALERS IN NEW AND SECOND-HAND MACHINERY AND GENERAL PRODUCE COMMISSION MERCHANTS.

Stepping into the large machinery hall of the above firm, we found Mr. Allcott, the senior member, busily engaged receiving and shipping machinery; in answer to inquiries he informs us that the outlook for this branch of business is quite encouraging, and that their business is steadily increasing—that our people are fast learning the advantages of using labor-saving machinery. We were particularly struck with the advantages of buying here at home in this branch of business. In buying of manufacturers you most always pay list prices, but in buying of this firm, who have had the choice and gotten the agencies of the best manufacturies in the United States, they reduce their commissions to a nominal sum and sell you the best machinery at greatly reduced prices, and should any machinery they handle get disarranged from any cause, they are here to correct it at once. They fully guarantee all machinery they sell. We are confident, those in need of machinery, can and will save money and trouble by dealing with this reliable firm.

M'CALLUM & COOPER, FOUNDERS AND MACHINISTS.

The spring trade this year, said Mr. C. was rather dull; the summer months were better. The prospects for this fall were fine; full of work and running on double time, Can do work and furnish goods in their line as cheap as other places. Pay good wages and employ excellent workmen. Farmers are patronizing their home industries more than ever, and have found it to their advantage to do so. He thought the taxes here on manufactories were too high. This is a prosperous firm and do a flourishing business. They are clever gentlemen and always deal fairly with their patrons.

ALLEN AND CRAM, FOUNDERS AND MACHINIST AND MANUFACTURERS OF AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

This firm begun business only a few years ago, but their energy and pluck has been attended with such success that their extended patronage has necessitated the recent purchase of a lot of new and improved machinery which they now have in operation. They have been full of business the whole year and expect to do lots of work in their line this fall. They manufacture machinery for gins, cotton presses, grist mills, and in fact all kinds of farm and heavy machinery. They assured the NEWS that they manufacture and supply North Carolina customers with work in their branch of trade as cheap as it can be delivered here from anywhere.

They are energetic, clever gentlemen and are entitled to consideration.

A. D. ROYSTER & BRO., CONFECTIONERS AND CANDY MANUFACTURERS.

The fall and spring trade with this popular firm had been good and business is expected to be brisk this fall. These gentlemen do a large business and deservedly enjoy the confidence and patronage of a large circle of customers. They sell cheap and manufacture first class candy. They will treat you right.

J. A. BRAGASSA, CONFECTIONER, FAYETTEVILLE STREET.

Mr. B. thought the summer trade this year had been rather dull, but looked for a good run of custom this fall. He can furnish goods in his line as cheap as Richmond or Norfolk houses. This is comparatively a new house, but Mr. B., by his fair dealing and cheap prices, is fast working up a good trade. He is a pleasant gentleman to deal with.

MOSELEY'S CONFECTIONERY, FAYETTEVILLE STREET.

Prospects with this gentleman for a good fall trade are encouraging. He will soon open an oyster saloon for ladies in connection with his confectionary store. He is a clever gentleman and is well patronized.

The State of Virginia vs. Gen. Johnson and the Messrs. Poe.

Baltimore Sun.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 9.—Attorney General James G. Field to-day obtained a writ of error from one of the judges of the Supreme Court of Appeals of the State to the judgment of the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond in the suit of the Commonwealth vs. Gen. Bradley T. Johnson and the Messrs. Poe, of Baltimore, in the matter of the claim set up by the State against these gentlemen for a balance alleged to be due from them on account of the settlement of her claim in the Chesapeake and Ohio canal, in which they acted as counsel for the State of Virginia. The Circuit Court decided this suit several months ago in favor of the defendants. A hearing in the case will probably be had by the Supreme Court in November term here.

Women are liked as members of school boards in Edinburg, as several of them have been re-elected, they having been made members in 1873. England, also, has women members on her school boards.

THE BONNIE BLUE FLAG

THE BATTLE FLAGS OF THE SOUTHERN CONFEDERACY.

The Torn, Riddled and Tattered Relics of Our Great Civil War---What Became of Them.

Cincinnati Enquirer.

The upper portion of the house now used by one of the clerks of the Adjutant-General's office, the first floor of which is set aside for the safe keeping and display of the captured battle flags of the late war. The rooms present a unique appearance. The walls are covered with the tattered remnants of the banners. The ceilings are hidden by bunting. The windows are draped and mantles festooned and doorways covered under by the flags, while hundreds of them are pigeon-holed and only unrolled to show the curious. The front room contains the flags captured from our army by the Confederates, numbering two hundred and thirty-four. They are in every degree of condition, from the bullet-riddled and moth-eaten to the perfect. These colors were all recaptured at the fall of Richmond, when they were found in the war office of that city. The Northern States are all represented by stripes of bunting, on which are emblazoned the coats-of-arms belonging to each section.

Among other pennants in this room possessing a general interest I noticed specially General Sheridan's staff flag, and from its torn and shred condition, the imagination can readily read its history. This flag was lost in the valley at a time when Sheridan was temporarily absent in Washington. On his return he found his army had been routed and driven back from its advanced position in a demoralized condition. Without stopping to consider a "plan of campaign," he sprang into his saddle and made the ride now famous in "historic verse." He reached his army in time to infuse enthusiasm into his men, and the next day led them to the most brilliant victory of the war. Furled close to this ensign is an Ohio banner, the number of its regiment shot away, but its record of forty five battles is one of which the State may be proud. If it could speak what a story it would narrate in victory and defeat, glory and death, and all the horros of those dreadful times. The flag of Berdan's sharpshooters has inscribed on the few folds left the fact that it was carried aloft in twenty-five engagements, and they the most important in the war. Our inspection was most especially invited to a square bit of silk, once of snowy whiteness, fringed with rich, deep bullion. The silk is yellow and mildewed and frayed. The fringe is rusty, and there are but two figures and letters to tell to which of our heroic men this scrap of luster once belonged, and these are the "Sixty-ninth New York Volunteers." There is a dark blood stain over this token of ownership, but the Irish legions who fought so bravely under the leadership of the gallant Corcoran are not slow to recognize this streamer as the one under which they were led to battle by the man who so generously gave his life to help save his adopted country.

In the back room are the Confederate flags captured by the boys in blue. I marked as a curious fact that there were few Stars and Bars, which many suppose to have been the emblem of the Southern Confederacy. I was informed by the gentleman in charge that this insignia was only used during the first twelve months of the war, and abandoned because at a distance it was difficult to distinguish the Stars and Bars from the Union Stars and Stripes, and on the recommendation of General Beauregard the Confederacy adopted the Southern Cross as their ensign. In this room are 534 flags taken from the secession forces, some from each State. Most of them are decorated with legends and symbols. A white silk banner, worn and mutilated, belonging to an Alabama regiment, bears on its scarred face the declaration that, "We fight for our homes, our wives and our children." An enthusiastic Alabamian has offered $800 for the worn silk. The terse sentence, pregnant with noble meaning, sets forth emphatically the inspirations under which the men of the Southern country went forth to do and to die.

On all of these pennants in the four corners of the cross are printed in black and gold letters the names of the battles through which they served to animate and stimulate the soldiers. The Confederate officers were much more particular in this respect than our own commanders.

Something ought to be done to preserve these flags, or in a few years more of exposure to "moth, mildew and rust" they will be reduced to absolute nothingness.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Trade is opening out lively; though the sales in the warehouses are about over for the season.

The result of so many pleasure ridings during the summer is likely to terminate quite a number of matrimonial unions, if Madame Rumor reports truly.

Dr. Osborn, of our town, we hear, has inherited quite a fortune by the death of his brother.

The political horizon in our vicinity is clear and quiet as yet, and we trust it may remain so.

The Sabbath celebration at Germanton last Saturday and Sunday is said to have been largely attended, eleven schools participating.

BUNCOMBE.

ASHEVILLE, Sept. 10.—The weather to-day is exremely pleasant and a cold wind is blowing from the north as if it would drive into the sea everything like an infectious disease, that might be among us.

Through justice and courtesy to the former town marshal, whom I reported on last week as having been removed from office, I am glad to announce that this was a mistake and that his going out was not compulsory, but that he resigned and his successor was appointed.

The Register of Deeds for the county reports seven marriage licenses issued during the past month. One of the couples to whom license was issued your correspondent had the pleasure of seeing united. It was a happy scene, and one, I would whisper to you, I would like to pass through myself.

There was a camp meeting at Turkey Creek including Saturday. Large concourse of people in attendance.

The young ladies of the village and lady visitors, on last Tuesday evening gave an entertainment in the form of tableaux, songs, etc., which was quite amusing.

It is reported in the village to-day that R. Y. McAden and others, stockholders of the Spartanburg & Asheville R. R. Co., intends locating a depot here and making their own transfer stations from Hendersonville, the present terminus of the road to this place.

Hon. Jesse F. Graves, the judge now presiding in this district, with his long retinue of lawyers passed through this place on yesterday, en route to Henderson from Marshall, at which place they have been holding court for the past week. ORANGE.

DURHAM, Sept. 10.—The alarm of fire was given last night and your correspondent falling in with the crowd soon found himself upon the scene of action and found the fire to be in the sash and door factory of Captain W. Mangum. The Durham Light Infantry with the Hook and Ladder Company were immediately at the place and fought bravely for the buildings; but to no purpose and soon the large factory, the cotton gin and grist mill were in ashes. The crowd deserves credit for saving the buildings near by, as they worked under very many disadvantages. Captain Mangum's loss is estimated at fifteen thousand dollars. Insurance one thousand dollars. He thinks a negro set the house on fire and is now looking for him.

CARTERET.

BEAUFORT, September 10.—Blue fishing is fine here now, Yesterday Mr. Porter, Captain Howland and myself went out in the Lucie and took one hundred and twenty-five blue fish in two hour's trolling. To-day we took a fine lot of blue fish and mackerel. Mr. Porter caught five Spanish mackerels, and Mr. James H. Pool brought one in weighing twenty-three pounds. This is the largest mackerel ever taken here with a hook. Mr. Pool had his hands badly cut with the line, but by scientific nursing he skillfully handed him in the boat, and had the pleasure of exhibiting his catch to many friends. G. U. I.

Another affray occurred to-day at the house of the notorious Jane Black, colored, in the meadow, in which an old gray headed individual figured (but no whisky in this scrape) and two others younger. The mayor put the fine to them, two of which not having the needful, were committed.

Watermelons are yet quite abundant, the days are hot and nights cool, hence chills must follow.

Mr. W. H. Hill lost his year old babe on Saturday of that terrible disease diphtheria, of which there have been but few cases of late and but about three deaths, children.

Yesterday I spent the day amongst the people of old Alamance church, where I found this inscription on the walls of now the third church building, "This Church organized A. D. 1761," hence that church organization is 118 years old; said to be the oldest in the country. Then the large marble tablets on the wall, with long inscriptions to the memory of Rev. David Caldwell and the Rev. Eli Caruthers, both of whom served them as ministers many, many years ago and have passed over to their reward, the name of Caldwell being a sufficient guarantee of what seed was sown, and what harvests have been reaped. At the entrance to that very, very large grave yard, is a slate tablet in Latin, dated 1803, that I did not read. M.

FROM WASHINGTON.

What is Thought of the Maine Election---The Grant Men Satisfied.

WASHINGTON, September 9.—The returns from the Maine election do not appear to satisfy any one of the different political parties. The Republicans seem to be greatly disappointed. They had made up their minds that Blaine would secure a clear majority for the Republicans over both the Democratic and Greenback tickets, and his failure to do so, it is thought, puts an end to his candidacy for the Presidency. It is considered that a man who cannot carry his own State for his party has no right to enter himself as a candidate for the Presidency. The Democrats say that while the result of the election is no particular credit to them, it rather suits them, in that it shows that there is at least one of the old strong Republican States of the North where that party has not a majority of the voters.

Secretary Sherman is keenly disappointed at the result. He was among the latest callers at the Republican committee's headquarters last night, and as the dispatches then indicated a clear Republican victory, he expressed himself as satisfied that he had prophesied correctly in saying that the Republicans would not only elect their candidate for Governor, but that they would elect him by a good round majority over the Democratic and Greenback candidates combined. To-day the Secretary says that the result of the election, while it is encouraging to the Republicans, is not of a character to help either of the parties in Ohio.

The people who want Grant for a third term seem to be pleased with the result in Maine. They say that it not only removes Blaine from the field as a candidate, but it helps to prove, what they have all along said, that Grant was the only man in the party who could just at this time unite the party on the one great issue and rally it to victory. They express themselves as firmly of the belief that the Maine election shows to the Republicans that there is only one way in which to win back their men who have gone over to the greenbackers, and that is by giving them Grant as a Presidential nominee.

CHINESE IMMIGRATION.

ANOTHER "BOOM" SOUNDED FOR GENERAL GRANT.

The General is Informed that, on Request of the United States, China will keep her People at Home.

San Francisco Bulletin, Aug. 28th.

We give below a statement of the interview which was recently held in China between Gen. Grant and Gen. Li Hung Chang, in which the Chinese question took a prominent place. It is much more full than the report which appeared in the Chinese papers. According to it, by the friendship of Li Hung Chang, who occupies a position in China somewhat similar to that of Grant in the United States, as he also overthrew a gigantic rebellion, the latter has been notified by the Government of China that, if application be made in proper form, an Imperial edict will be issued, forbidding the immigration to the United States of all the Chinese laboring classes. With the lights before us it is not seen how such a document would affect Chinese immigration from Hong Kong, which is a British port. We give place, however, to the statement because it is in the nature of news. We have every confidence that the gentleman by whom it has been prepared has authority for what he says. If all our Government has to do is to ask for a stoppage of Chinese immigration, it is easy to see that an unwholesome agitation, of which the end is not now discernible, can very speedily be brought to a close, provided the Chinese Government has the means at hand to make its edict respected. The following is the statement to which reference is above made:

"By authentic information received by the last steamer from China, it would appear that there is a probability that one result of General Grant's visit to China may be a settlement of the vexed question of Chinese immigration, and this much evil will be averted to our Pacific Coast.

"It is said certain propositions have been made through him to the United States Government by high officials of the Imperial Government that offer means of settlement without a new treaty. To explain this fully, it is necessary first to narrate certain facts regarding the Government of China that not all are acquainted with.

"The present Emperor of China is an infant of about five years, under the care of two women, that may be called the Empress Mother and the Empress Dowager of former Emperors. As nearly as can be explained to foreigners, these two old women may be said to act as Regents during the minority of the child.

"The Prime Minister, who has been in power many years, is Prince Kung, a name well known to European diplomatists; but the statesman who is the motive power of China in her foreign relations, is a man of great ability and acquirements—a Chinaman, and not a Manchou Tartar. This man is the Viceroy, by name, Li Hung Chang. He rose to his present high rank by having crushed the great Taeping rebellion some years since, and is one of the finest of Chinese scholars, and well versed in modern knowledge, history, geography, etc. He is of the same age as General Grant, and like him has become celebrated by having put down rebellion in his country. These facts have brought about most intimate relations and friendship between two great men, and owing to this, probably, no foreigner has ever been received with the cordiality and favor that General Grant has been in Peking and China. And this has not been the most important result, for, through the personal friendship of the Viceroy to the General, he has been informed that, if the United States, through the Secretary of State, or any proper official personage appointed, will apply to the Imperial Government to stop Chinese immigration to California and the United States, an Imperial edict of the most stringent character will be at once issued that will stop emigration effectually, and most particularly all of the laboring classes; and this will be done without the necessity of any new treaty.

"General Grant, who will arrive in San Francisco about the last of September, has authority to make the above proposition to the Government at Washington."

Charles Francis Adam's Golden Wedding.

Quincy Patriot.

The fiftieth marriage anniversay of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis Adams occurred on Wednesday last. It is an interesting and very unusual fact that three golden weddings of successive generations of the same family should have been observed in the same house. That of President John Adams and his wife was celebrated on the 26th of October, 1814. That of their son, President John Quincy Adams, and his wife on the 26th of July, 1847. The third has just taken place. It will be noticed that the intervals between these occasions were respectively thirty-three and thirty-two years—almost exactly the life time of a generation. At the time of their golden weddings, President John Adams was seventy-nine and President J. Q. Adams had just entered his eightieth year.

Nature has given to women a formation of the shoulder which prevents her from throwing a ball; but when it comes to slinging a stoneware sugar bowl at a man's head, it is a very different matter.—Boston Transcript.

A Greek maid, being asked what fortune she would bring her husband, replied: "I will bring him what gold cannot purchase—a heart unspotted, a virtue without stain, which is all that descended to me from my parents."

Be wise and happy.

If you will stop all your extravagant and wrong notions in doctoring yourself and families with expensive doctors or humbug cure-alls, that do harm always, and use only nature's simple remedies for all your ailments—you will be wise, well and happy, and save great expense. The greatest remedy for this, the great, wise and good will tell you, is Hop Bitters—rely on it. See another column.

DAILY NEWS

GEO. C. JORDAN, Editor and Prop'r.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1879.

WASHINGTON will have a sensation in February. The trial of a large number of suits between the inventors of telephones is to take place in that month, and testimony is now being taken preparatory to the suits.

THE Tribune still hammers away at the much despised silver currency; and yet it would be safe to say that the financial manager of that journal will not refuse silver for subscriptions or for the space occupied with advertising.

THE Petersburg Index-Appeal states that the amount of tobacco sold in Danville, Va., for the year ending September 30th, will aggregate at least 29,000,000 pounds, which will be the largest receipts for one year ever recorded.

HORATIO SEYMOUR declined to be a delegate to the Syracuse war-dance, and admonished the brethren to be harmonious. The Convention has lost its only chance of containing an eminent statesman.—New York Tribune.

Is it possible that the erudite politician that furnishes the editorial matter of the Tribune concedes the point that the Democratic party contains one statesman.

THE news from the Syracuse convention is meager up to this writing (10 P. M.) and we cannot make any statement or comments that would prove satisfactory regarding the matter. Present indications would show that Tammany is inclined to harmonize—the best thing that the Kelly crowd could do under the circumstances. The World, anti-Tilden, is taking water.

THE attention of the Government has been drawn to the very large importations of sugar from the Sandwich Islands. Assistant Secretary French, of the Treasury Department, says that there is reason to believe that sugar is being shipped to the Sandwich Islands, and then re-exported to San Francisco to evade the payment of duties. An investigation of this subject is now being made.

WHY is it that all the Democratic leaders, including such men as Horatio Seymour, Kernan, Bayard, Thurman, Hendricks, Hancock, Blackburn, Beck, Lamar, Gordon, Pendleton, Wade Hampton, Vest, Morrison—in fact, nearly every solitary Democratic member of Congress—all oppose, and most bitterly oppose, the very thought of Mr. Tilden's nomination?—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

Why is it? The very simple reason is because they don't.

THE Chicago Tribune apparently does not indorse the Administration, as in referring to Colonel Forney's statement in the Progress that "R. B. Hayes, the last time I saw him in Philadelphia, joined me in a glass of champagne at the Union League." Here is a case for the remnants of the Mrs. R. B. Hayes' Temperance Society to consider. The Washington Republic thinks it isn't fair for the President to drink wine as a guest unless he sets it up as a host.

THE Chicago Tribune has been trying to ruin the credit of Southern States and communities by denouncing them as repudiators. Just now it cannot find terms strong enough in which to express its indignation against certain Eastern journals, who, perhaps, on better grounds, have been writing down Western securities as worthless and Western people as unreliable. An Illinois paper is peculiarly sensitive to criticism of the kind, inasmuch as that State has several millions of outstanding canal claims against her, which she is in no hurry to pay, and refuses to make any provision for.

MR. MURAT HALSTEAD, in conversation with an interviewer, takes rather a gloomy view of the Southern programme for the future. He says "the Confederates" propose to use the next Congress as a returning board to elect a Democratic President; that if they can retain the House their Confederate caucus will control both Congress and the President; and that Jefferson Davis, as United States Senator from Mississippi, will regulate the caucus, and be substantially ruler of the country. Mr. Halstead says he does not believe the programme will be carried out, and we are inclined to think he will find it difficult to catch a man who does.

THE "drop game" has been successfully played once more. This time it was in Philadelphia, as stated in yesterday's issue of the NEWS. A messenger in one of the city departments while getting a check cashed for $2,780 was robbed of $2,400. While the messenger was verifying the count a person directed his attention to a note on the floor, and while he was stooping to pick it up the stranger walked off with the largest portion of the amount drawn. This is the third time within a fortnight that this game has been tried with its full measure of success: in New York, Trenton and Philadelphia, and the money lost aggregates some $7,000. It would appear as if the thieves were working in a southerly direction, and we may expect to hear that they have worked Washington and Richmond with like results. The game is an old one, and it is fair to infer that those intrusted with checks for large amounts, and who have been victimized in this manner pay but little attention to the daily papers. Read and be wise.

GEORGE W. SMALLEY, in a letter to the New York Tribune lashes the army authorities of Great Britain severely about the case of Lieutenant Carey. This officer was sentenced to death by a court-martial for his action in the affair that resulted in the death of the Prince Imperial. When he arrives in England, however, the proceedings of the court-martial are quashed. But the truth remains what it was before. No new facts have come out, unless we are to accept Lieutenant Carey's assertion that he had nothing to do with the escort, and was only there to verify a previous survey. Mr. Smalley sums up his letter in the following style, which may appear to many as slightly mixed:

"Carey and the others ran away in a panic at the first fire. The Prince would have got away too had somebody stopped a second to help him up. The Duke of Cambridge and the British army in general may think the affair creditable, or not discreditable. I believe Continental opinion is all the other way. The sole real excuse for Carey is that his horse was uncontrollable; which may have been true for the first minute or two. True or not, the adventure is not one on which Englishmen will, in the end, pride themselves. It may not have been necessary to punish Carey. But to make a hero of him implies that the material of heroism is very scarce; which is not a thing to be believed of England."

THE MAINE ELECTION.

The Republicans have gained the day in Maine. It was the hardest fight they ever made with the smallest results accruing. Maine cannot figure as an important factor in the National fight, as that State has been conceded to the Republicans for years past.

The only moral that is to be deduced from the result is that the old fight between Blaine and Conkling has been renewed, which narrows the contest down to Grant and Hayes. Political prophets can therefore go to work and furnish their horoscopes accordingly.

NORTH CAROLINA HORSES AT THE STATE FAIR.

The executive committee have appropriated one thousand dollars in premiums for the trials of speed, at the State Fair, and confined the competition for the same to horses owned in North Carolina at least six months previous to the Fair.

This feature is a very popular one, and we learn gives satisfaction throughout the State, because it is a direct effort for the improvement of our own stock. The money will be paid to our own citizens, and stimulate the production of fine stock. No State is more favorably situated than our own. Many thousands of dollars go annually to Kentucky and Tennessee that would come to North Carolina, if we would use the advantages we have. Let us see a great outpouring of our home stock, and a good beginning made in a work of great importance to our prosperity. Care has been taken to provide comfortable accommodations for all the stock exhibited.

THE MITCHELL MONUMENT.

An Appeal Issued for the Aid of two Worthy Ladies.

Correspondence of the News.

Is anything being done to forward the project of erecting a monument on top of Mount Mitchell to the memory of the late Dr. Mitchell, who perished there, a martyr to his zeal for the cause of knowledge and to the development and honor of his adopted State? Or are its promoters following the old "North Carolina System" "To resolve and re-resolve, then die the same?"

The State that honors her worthy dead will encourage her living, and inspire her future citizens to labor for her profit, for her glory and renown. It is not as generally known to the people of the State as it should be that Dr. Mitchell has left behind him a monument worthy of such a citizen in the persons of his two daughters, Mrs. E. N. Grant and Miss Maggie Mitchell. They were thoroughly educated, in a great part by Dr. Mitchell himself, and entirely under his superintendence. They learned not only those ornamental branches to which young ladies usually give a too exclusive attention; but they were deeply grounded in mathematics; in the dead languages, and the sciences; making their education thoroughly masculine as well as feminine.

The results of the war left them like every body else in the South, dependent on themselves, and nobly have they met the responsibility. They have leased the Simonton Female College in the town of Statesville, N. C., a large, well arranged and imposing building, built by the Concord Presbytery at a cost of more than thirty thousand dollars, and here they have established a female boarding school which for thorough education, high moral training, home like life and influence, and all else that should characterize a school to educate the future wives and mothers of the South, has no superior and few equals anywhere. This school is located in one of the healthiest towns in the State, where no ague, or other malarial disease, has ever dared to come, and a town unsurpassed for good morals and good order, which sits like a jewel among the fruitful hills of Iredell, in full view of the top of the Blue Ridge, from whose summit it is only one jump for the health-laden winds.

Surely the old friends of Dr. Mitchell, the people of North Carolina and of the South generally, will see that this school never lacks pupils, or these noble Southern women who preside over it, encouragement.

ONE WHO KNOWS WHEREOF HE SPEAKS.

The United States Election Laws to be Tested.

Baltimore Gazette, 9th.

The validity of the United States election laws, which was the subject of so much discussion in Congress and which formed the subject of one of President Hayes' most elaborate vetoes, is to be tested before the United States Supreme Court in the matter of the Baltimore election cases. On Sunday morning General Bradley T. Johnson, of the law firm of Johnson & Poe, of Baltimore, accompanied by G. Morris Bond, United States commissioner, visited the city jail and took the affidavits of Henry Bowers, Walter Tucker, Albert Stebold, Martin C. Burns and Lewis Coleman, State judges and clerks of election, who are serving out terms of imprisonment under the sentence of Judge Bond, of the United States Circuit Court, for alleged violation of those laws by interfering with the United States supervisors and deputy marshals. With these affidavits and petitions in the cases named General Johnson left Baltimore Sunday night for the purpose of meeting Chief Justice Waite, of the Supreme Court, by appointment, at Lyme, Conn., this afternoon, when the Chief Justice will hear General Johnson's application for writs of habeas corpus in the cases of the prisoners named. On the hearing of these cases it is expected that the question of the constitutionality of the election laws will be passed upon by the Supreme Court. The argument on behalf of the prisoners will cover the whole ground as to whether Congress has the right or not to pass laws to regulate elections held by State officers under State laws or to appoint officers to supervise the execution of duties by State officers imposed upon them by State laws. It will be contended that the United States can only exercise the powers delegated to them by the constitution. Within the scope of these powers their government is supreme; beyond them it has no existence. All powers not delegated to them are reserved to the States or to the people, and in the exercise of them the States are sovereign, the two governments together forming one complete whole, and neither can or ought to interfere with the rights of the other as in the passage of these election laws by Congress.

With a Hard Fight.

Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.

The Republican State Convention, composed of the most representative men of the party, presenting all shades of preference, has made its nominations, ordained its principles and adjourned. The spirit of harmony—of supreme desire for such action as shall provoke to effort and secure the victory—pervaded all the councils of the convention. * * * This is the ticket, and with it we can win if the party will organize its sections for victory. Every man is wanted at the front. Every bayonet will be fixed, and with a hard fight we shall win a great victory,

It would make life in America much more agreeable if the talented Mr. Kernan, of the Okolona Southern States, and the able editor of the Lemars Sentinel would travel around the country holding public discussions on the subject of Secession and Centralization. Doubtless some arrangement in the way of breast-works could be made that the audience might look on with comparatively safety.

The Best Evidence.

The following letter from Rev. E. S. Best, Pastor of M. E. Church, Natick, Mass., will be read with interest by many physicians; also those suffering from the same disease as afflicted the son of the Rev. E. S. Best. No person can doubt this testimony, as there is no doubt about the curative powers of Vegetine.

NATICK, MASS., Jan. 1, 1874.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir, We have good reason for regarding your Vegetine a medicine of the greatest value. We feel assured that it has been the means of saving our son's life. He is now seventeen years of age. For the last two years he has suffered from a necrosis of his leg, caused by scrofulous affection, and was so far reduced that nearly all who saw him thought his recovery impossible. A council of able physicians could give us but the faintest hope of his ever rallying; two of the number declaring that he was beyond the reach of human remedies, that even amputation could not save him, as he had not vigor enough to endure the operation. Just then we commenced giving him Vegetine, and from that time to the present he has been continuously improving. He has lately resumed his studies, thrown away his crutches and cane, and walks about cheerfully and strong.

Though there is still some discharge from the opening where the limb was lanced, we have the fullest confidence that in a little time he will be perfectly cured.

He has taken about three dozen bottles of Vegetine, but lately uses but little, as he declares that he is too well to be taking medicine.

Respectfully yours,
E. S. BEST,
MRS. L. C. F. BEST.

LIVER PILLS

FOR THE CURE OF

Hepatitis, or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increases on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER

DR. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them a FAIR TRIAL.

For all bilious derangements, and as a simple purgative, they are unequaled.

GOSSIP FOR THE LADIES.

Her Feet, they are so Small.

Her feet, they are so small,
So delicate her tread,
The daisies do not bend at all
When she walks o'erhead;
But she looks up, and falls in love
With Pysche's tiny feet above.

She walks with such an art,
And steps so daintily,
If she should tread upon my heart,
'Twould still unbroken be;
Unless 'twere by the loveliness
Which Pysche's tiny feet possess!

At the recent meeting of the Algerian Shooting (rifle) Society twenty-seven prizes went to ladies.

Jet-beaded passementerie ornaments are to be used on rich dresses as well as on the dressiest wraps.

Long looped bows falling in a cascade from under the long points of Vandyked corsages are very much worn.

The straight band across the forehead is still the most fashionable style of cut and arrangement for young girls' hair.

The most fashionable arrangement of the back hair is narrow, in braids or torsades falling on the nape of the neck.

Fancy and plain ribbons are both used for loops, and in some cases form a complete cascade down the front of the dress.

India and valley cashmere shawls are revived as the most appropriate wraps to be worn with the new French-India cashmere costumes.

Cuticura

REMEDIES

Have speedily and permanently cured Humors of the Skin and Scalp of Children and Infants afflicted since birth.

The treatment prescribed in such cases is mild doses of the CUTICURA RESOLVENT, a perfectly safe yet powerful blood purifier, and the external use of CUTICURA, the great skin cure. The CUTICURA SOAP should be the only soap applied to the diseased skin for cleansing purposes.

Humor on a Child

Since Birth Cured, after faithful Medical Treatment had failed.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen, My little son, two years of age, has had a humor on one side of his face since he was born, which during the last four months has spread over the entire side of the face, the child ear, and side of the head. It must have itched and irritated him a great deal, as he scratched the surface all the time, no matter what was applied. I used many remedies by advice of friends and my physician without benefit until I found CUTICURA, which immediately allayed the itching and inflammation, and entirely cured him. Respectfully, JOHN L. SURRY.
With Walworth Manufacturing Co.
BOSTON, April 15, 1878.

NOTE. Once cured, the skin may be rendered soft and fair by using the Cuticura Soap exclusively for toilet or nursery purposes.

CHILDREN AND INFANTS.

More Cures of Skin and Scalp Affections by the Cuticura Remedies.

Fred. Rohrer, Esq., Cashier Stock Growers' National Bank, Pueblo, Colo ado, writes: "I am so well pleased with its effects on my baby, that I cannot afford to be without it in my house. It is a wonderful cure, and is bound to become very popular as soon as its virtues are known to the masses."

J. S. Weeks, Esq., Town Treasurer, St. Albans, Vt., says in a letter dated May 28: "It works to a charm on my baby's face and head. Cured the head entirely, and has nearly cleaned the face of sores. I have recommend it to several, and Dr. Plant has ordered it for them."

M. M. Chick, Esq., 41 Franklin St., Boston, says: "My little daughter, eighteen months old, has what the doctors call Eczema. We have tried most everything, and at last have used CUTICURA, and she is almost a new child, and we feel very happy."

Prickly Heat.

Incidental to the Texan Climate.

MESSRS. WEEKS & POTTER: Gentlemen.—Enclosed please find one dollar for a large box of CUTICURA. The small one that I received some time ago has been very efficacious, especially in Prickly Heat or Rash, as some people call it. I am noising it about.
Yours truly, THOMAS W. BUCKLEY.
MASON, Texas, Sept. 22, 1878.

CUTICURA is a most valuable external application. It heals all cuts, bruises, and abrasions of the skin, restores the hair when destroyed by scalp diseases, removes dandruff and keeps the scalp clean and the hair soft and pliable. It is as agreeable as it is effective, and is ably assisted, in every case by the CUTICURA SOAP, which is particularly recommended to mothers for cleansing the skin and scalp of infants and children. It is Toilet as well as Medicinal, and is the most fragrant and refreshing Soap for the nursery and bath of any these prepared.

Parents have our assurance that these remedies contain nothing injurious to the youngest infant, evidence of which may be found in the certificates of Dr. Hayes and Prof. Merrick accompanying each remedy.

The CUTICURA REMEDIES are prepared by Weeks & Potter, Chemists and Druggists, 360 Washington Street, Boston, Mass., and are for sale by all Druggists. Price of Cuticura, small boxes, 50 cents; large boxes $1. Resolvent, $1 per bottle. Cuticura Soap, 25 cents per cake; by mail, 30 cents; 3 cakes, 75 cents.

SYMPTOMS OF A
TORPID LIVER.

Loss of Appetite, Bowels costive, Pain in the Head, with a dull sensation in the back part, Pain under the shoulderblade, fullness after eating, with a disinclination to exertion of body or mind, Irritability of temper, Low spirits, with a feeling of having neglected some duty, Weariness, Dizziness, Fluttering at the Heart, Dots before the eyes, Yellow Skin, Headache generally over the right eye, Restlessness with fitful dreams, highly colored Urine.

IF THESE WARNINGS ARE UNHEEDED, SERIOUS DISEASES WILL SOON BE DEVELOPED.

TUTT'S PILLS are especially adapted to such cases, one dose effects such a change of feeling as to astonish the sufferer.

Only with regularity of the bowels can perfect health be enjoyed. If the constipation is of recent date, a single dose of TUTT'S PILLS will suffice, but if it has become habitual, one pill should be taken every night, gradually lessening the frequency of the dose until a regular daily movement is obtained, which will soon follow.

Dr. I. Guy Lewis, Fulton, Ark., says:
"After a practice of 25 years, I pronounce TUTT'S PILLS the best anti-bilious medicine ever made."

Rev. F. R. Osgood, New York, says:
"I have had Dyspepsia, Weak Stomach and Nervousness. I never had any medicine to do me so much good as TUTT'S PILLS. They are as good as represented."

STOMACH
BITTERS

Fever and Ague is most common in the spring, but most severe in the fall and winter. It is strictly a malarious disease, and so surely as the Bitters are adopted, so surely will the individual who adopts this precaution be exempted from its pains and penalties. Add to this its value as a stomachic and anti-bilious agent, and who will venture to gainsay its claims to the first place among family medicines.

——Thomas Durham has a letter in the post office here addressed to the care of Mr. Uzzell, Wilson's Mills, N. C., but as Uncle Sam does'nt carry letters free, a three cent stamp is necessary for its delivery. Miss Sallie M. Lewis also has a letter, directed to Michael's Creek, N. C. There is no such office in the State.

——Our moonlight reporter says it is no longer the fashion for courting couples to swing on the front gate. They come outside, sit flat down on the horse-block, like a tailor on his bench, or boys playing mumble-peg. What next?—Farmer and Mechanic. And instead of saying "baby mine" to one another as of yore, the beaux enfolds the belle in his arms and cries "you darling Zulu!"

——Mr. Thomas Macon has greatly increased his facilities for handling oysters this season. He will fit up a handsome oyster saloon in the rear of the store-house formerly occupied by Mr. Lumsden, where he will serve the juicy bivalves in all the different styles. He will also occupy his old stand for the sale of oysters by the measure, and guarantees that he can furnish a better oyster this year than he has yet been able to do.

The State Treasury yesterday issued drummers licenses to the following parties: S. S. Cottrell & Co., Richmond, Va.; C. Eardman, New Berne; and R. Mason & Sons, Baltimore.

This popular theatrical troupe, as before announced, appear at Tucker Hall to-morrow night. The company is this season composed of thirty-five artists, and those who attend may look for a rare treat. They present "Prince Napoleon, or the Fatal Field in Zululand," a play well spoken of by the papers wherever it has been introduced. Secure your seats at Heartt's Drug Store.

Mr. Lincke and Pedestrianism.

Mr. Lincke says that unless George Harward, or whoever the contestants are to be at the walking match under the auspices of the Raleigh Jockey Club on the 24th instant, puts up $25 forfeit money by the 15th of this month, he will discontinue training and will be considered out of the match. If Mr. Lincke enters for this walk he expects to train himself in the meantime and regulate his diet, etc., and does not wish to be put to this trouble and then run the chance of having no one to oppose him when the time for the match arrives. Plank up, and let's have the match.

Police Court.

Mayor Manly had only one offender before him yesterday—a party charged with larceny. It was dismissed, however, the prosecutor refusing to appear. Billy said Wednesday was an off day anyway, but from the looks of the moon, he predicted a brisker time today. Did'nt see anything of the moon at the time he made the prediction, and he said that was it exactly; dark nights always have a tendency to increase business in his court.

The New Judge.

Governor Jarvis yesterday appointed Colonel John A. Gilmer, of Greensboro, Guilford county, Judge of the Fifth Judicial District, to succeed the late Hon. John Kerr.

Purses Open to the World.

Some liberal gentlemen are getting up purses for fine running and trotting, open to the world. These will be shortly announced. It is believed that the smoking tobacco manufacturers of Durham and other points will take part in the grand purse. Much interest is felt abroad. The secretary is daily receiving letters from Baltimore, Petersburg, Lynchburg, Buffalo Springs, Norfolk and other places in connection with this feature of the Fair. Mr. Wescott, of Petersburg, has a pair of fine pacers, two trotters and two runners he desires to bring. All names of those who take part in the subscription purses will be fully announced, and will deserve the thanks of the public for their liberality.

Another Jail Bird.

Justice H. A. Rhodes, of Mark's Creek Township, yesterday furnished Mary Williams, colored, with quarters at the Hotel de Nowell.

It seems that Mary was dissatisfied with her own wardrobe, and had watched with a covetous eye the better dresses of another colored damsel of her neighborhood. So taking advantage of her more favored sister's absence she dons some of her said neighbor's best clothes and starts for Raleigh to spend a holiday and show off. She will now "show off" in the county jail, perhaps at a little disadvantage, but nevertheless she will "show off." Don't serenade her, anybody; she's green, and not used to it.

He is a native of Granville county, but has located at Chapel Hill for his professional work. He will make a fine display at the Fair. Portraits of Governors Vance and Hampton from his pencil may be seen at the office of the Society in Raleigh. Let native genius be encouraged.

Raleigh & Gaston Railroad.

The Committee of Finance and Inspection of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad, consisting of Major T. B. Venable, Major W. J. Baker, of Norfolk, Major R. S. Tucker and A. M. McPheeters, Esq., made the annual examination on Tuesday, and the NEWS learns from the committee that this old and popular road is in a most excellent condition; the bridges are in perfect order, several of them having just been overhauled, recovered with galvanized iron and copper and newly painted. Several miles of new steel rail have been laid, and there is no road in the South that offers safer or more comfortable transportation to the traveling pubic. There is evidence of thrift and improvement at nearly all the depots, particularly at Kittrells and Henderson where the tobacco interest is growing more and more important every day. At Henderson, one party had just made a sale of one hundred thousand pounds of tobacco, which was being moved at one shipment. The Oxford and Henderson railroad, is now a fixed fact, and ground will be broken to-day in its commencement. This must make an important feeder to the road. At Raleigh the improvements have been marked and such as has been long needed. A new and well arranged office for the efficient freight agent, Mr. C. S. Allen, has been erected; the warehouse accommodations have been largely increased; a new fire-proof storehouse, also fire-proof oil and waste house; new and improved machinery has been put in the shop, all under the skilled direction and control of Mr. B. R. Harding, master mechanic. All these improvements have been made and 3 per cent. dividend declared out of the earnings of the last year. It is gratifying to note these evidences of prosperity. All under the management of the courteous, laborious and able superintendent, Major John C. Winder.

Moore's School History of North Carolina.

This worthy little book is rapidly finding its way into our schools. The publishers are receiving orders for it almost daily, and it is truly gratifying to know that in a short while our boys and girls will be much better informed than many of we older people are as to our rise and progress as a State.

If you wish to get the best go to Yeargan, Petty & Jones and ask for a spool of the Mile End Cotton. They sell over five hundred dozen of this every month. The best spool cotton in use.

Under the oak trees lately sat
A couple, and no more, in chat;
I wonder what they could be at
But smoking the "Little Maimee."
How long I wondered I could not tell
What dainty pleased them both so well.
Bees, bees! Was it you, hydromel?
No! 'twas Leopold's Little Maimee.

False Impression.

It is generally supposed by physicians and the people generally that Dyspepsia can not invariably be cured, but we are pleased to say that Green's August Flower has never, to our knowledge, failed to cure Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint in all its forms, such as Sour Stomach, Costiveness, Sick Headache, palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, &c. Out of the 50,000 dozen bottles sold last year, not a single failure was reported, but thousands of complimentary letters received from druggists of wonderful cures. Three doses will relieve any case. Try it. Sample bottles 10 cents. Regular size 75 cents. For sale by all druggists. *

Mrs. R. Leopold begs to announce to her friends tha she is still running her cigar business, and is giving to the smoking public as good and even better cigar for five cents than can be procured elsewhere. *

JOB OSBORN. *

BOVINE, MISSISSIPPI, April 22, 1879.—The following correspondence will explain itself: A. WADDILL, Esq., LYNCHBURG, VA.—Dear Sir: Observing a certificate from you in reference to the "Iron and Alum Mass," of the Seven Springs, in Washington county, Va., in relation to its efficacy for Liver Diseases, would you have the kindness to inform me whether you used the "Mass" or the "Water;" also, a description of the symptoms and such other information as you may deem pertinent. I am a long-time sufferer with Liver Complaint, and naturally feel very anxious on the subject of a remedy that will afford me even temporary relief. Your early reply will greatly oblige, very respectfully,
WILLIAM BARR.

LYNCHBURG, Va., May 12, 1879.—WM. BARR, Esq., Bovine, Mississippi—Dear Sir: Your inquiry in regard to the "Liver case" which was effectually cured in my family from using the "Seven Springs Mass," is before me. The case referred to in my certificate was that of my wife's sister, who is now in her 80th year, and has been a member of my family for the last 27 years. She had been afflicted with Liver Disease for 30 years, sometimes almost, dying with pains in the back, breast, and heaviness of the chest, heart-burns (intensely), sick stomach, vomiting, &c. I procured a few bottles of the "Mass" for her, and very soon after she began the use of it, her health commenced to get better, and she continued steadily to improve, and at this writing, so old, seemingly in as good health as a person who had never been afflicted with these diseases. She attributes her cure entirely to the efficacy of the "Seven Springs Mass." I regard it one of the greatest family medicines we have access to, not only for such diseases as above indicated, but for various other complaints for which it is recommended. Hoping these answers satisfactory, I am, very truly, A. WADDILL, Proprietor Lynchburg News.

Why Will You

Allow a cold to advance in your system and thus encourage more serious maladies, such as Pneumonia, Hemorrhages and Lung troubles when an immediate relief can be so readily attained. Boschee's German Syrup has gained the largest sale in the world for the cure of Cough, Colds and the severest Lung Diseases. It is Dr. Boschee's famous German prescription, ane is prepared with the greatest care, and no fear need be entertained in administering it to the youngest child, as per directions. The sale of this medicine is unprecedented. Since first introduced there has been a constant increasing demand rnd without a single report of a failure to do its work in any case. Ask your Druggist as to the truth of these remarks. Large size 75 cents. Try it and be convinced.

It is asserted that the ordinary cosmetics used by ladies are productive of great mischief. We believe this is so, and that a better means of securing a beautiful complexion is to use some blood medicine like Rosadalis, the great Southern Remedy, which cleanses the blood and gives permanent beauty to the skin.

The Remedy.

To escape the worthless abominations offered under the title of Baking Powders, rests wholly with the consumers; they are the ones that have to suffer. Dr. Price's Cream Baking powder is decided by chemists to be the most perfect and wholesome powder made.
